Odluka br. 3262 13.08.1947

General Ludwig Kübler (2 September 1889 – 18 August 1947) was a German General of the Mountain Troops during World War II who was executed as a war criminal in Yugoslavia.

He was then appointed commander of the 4th Army. His performance did not meet Adolf Hitler's expectations and he was moved to the leadership reserve and did not receive another command until the summer of 1943 and a year later he was appointed commander of LXXXXVII Army Corps. Shortly before the end of the war he was wounded and captured in Yugoslavia, where together with his successor Generalleutnant Hans von Hößlin he was sentenced to death in 1947 by a Yugoslav court. He was hanged in Ljubljana on 18 August 1947, like his younger brother, Generalleutnant Joseph Kübler (1896-1947), who was also hanged in Belgrade on 26 February 1947.

In May 1964 the barracks in Mittenwald in Bavaria were named after General Kübler. In November 1995 Volker Rühle, then the German Minister of Defence, changed the name "General-Kübler-Kaserne" into "Karwendel-Kaserne".
