Odluka br. 2303 10.06.1947

Miroslav (Friedrich) Navratil (July 19, 1893 in Sarajevo – June, 1947 in Zagreb) was a Croatian soldier, pilot, and general who served in the armies of Austria-Hungary, the Kingdom of Yugoslavia, and the Independent State of Croatia.

With the establishment of the Independent State of Croatia on April 10, 1941 Navratil was brought back into active service. He was named as a military representative in Bucharest. He served as minister of the armed forces from 2 September 1943 to 29 January 1944. After he was relieved of his post because of his complaints about the brutality of the government, he travelled to Vienna where his family was located and remained there until the end of World War II. In 1945 he moved to Zell am See where he lived until he was found by American troops in 1946. He was sent back to communist Yugoslavia in 1947, where he was executed in June of that same year for war crimes
